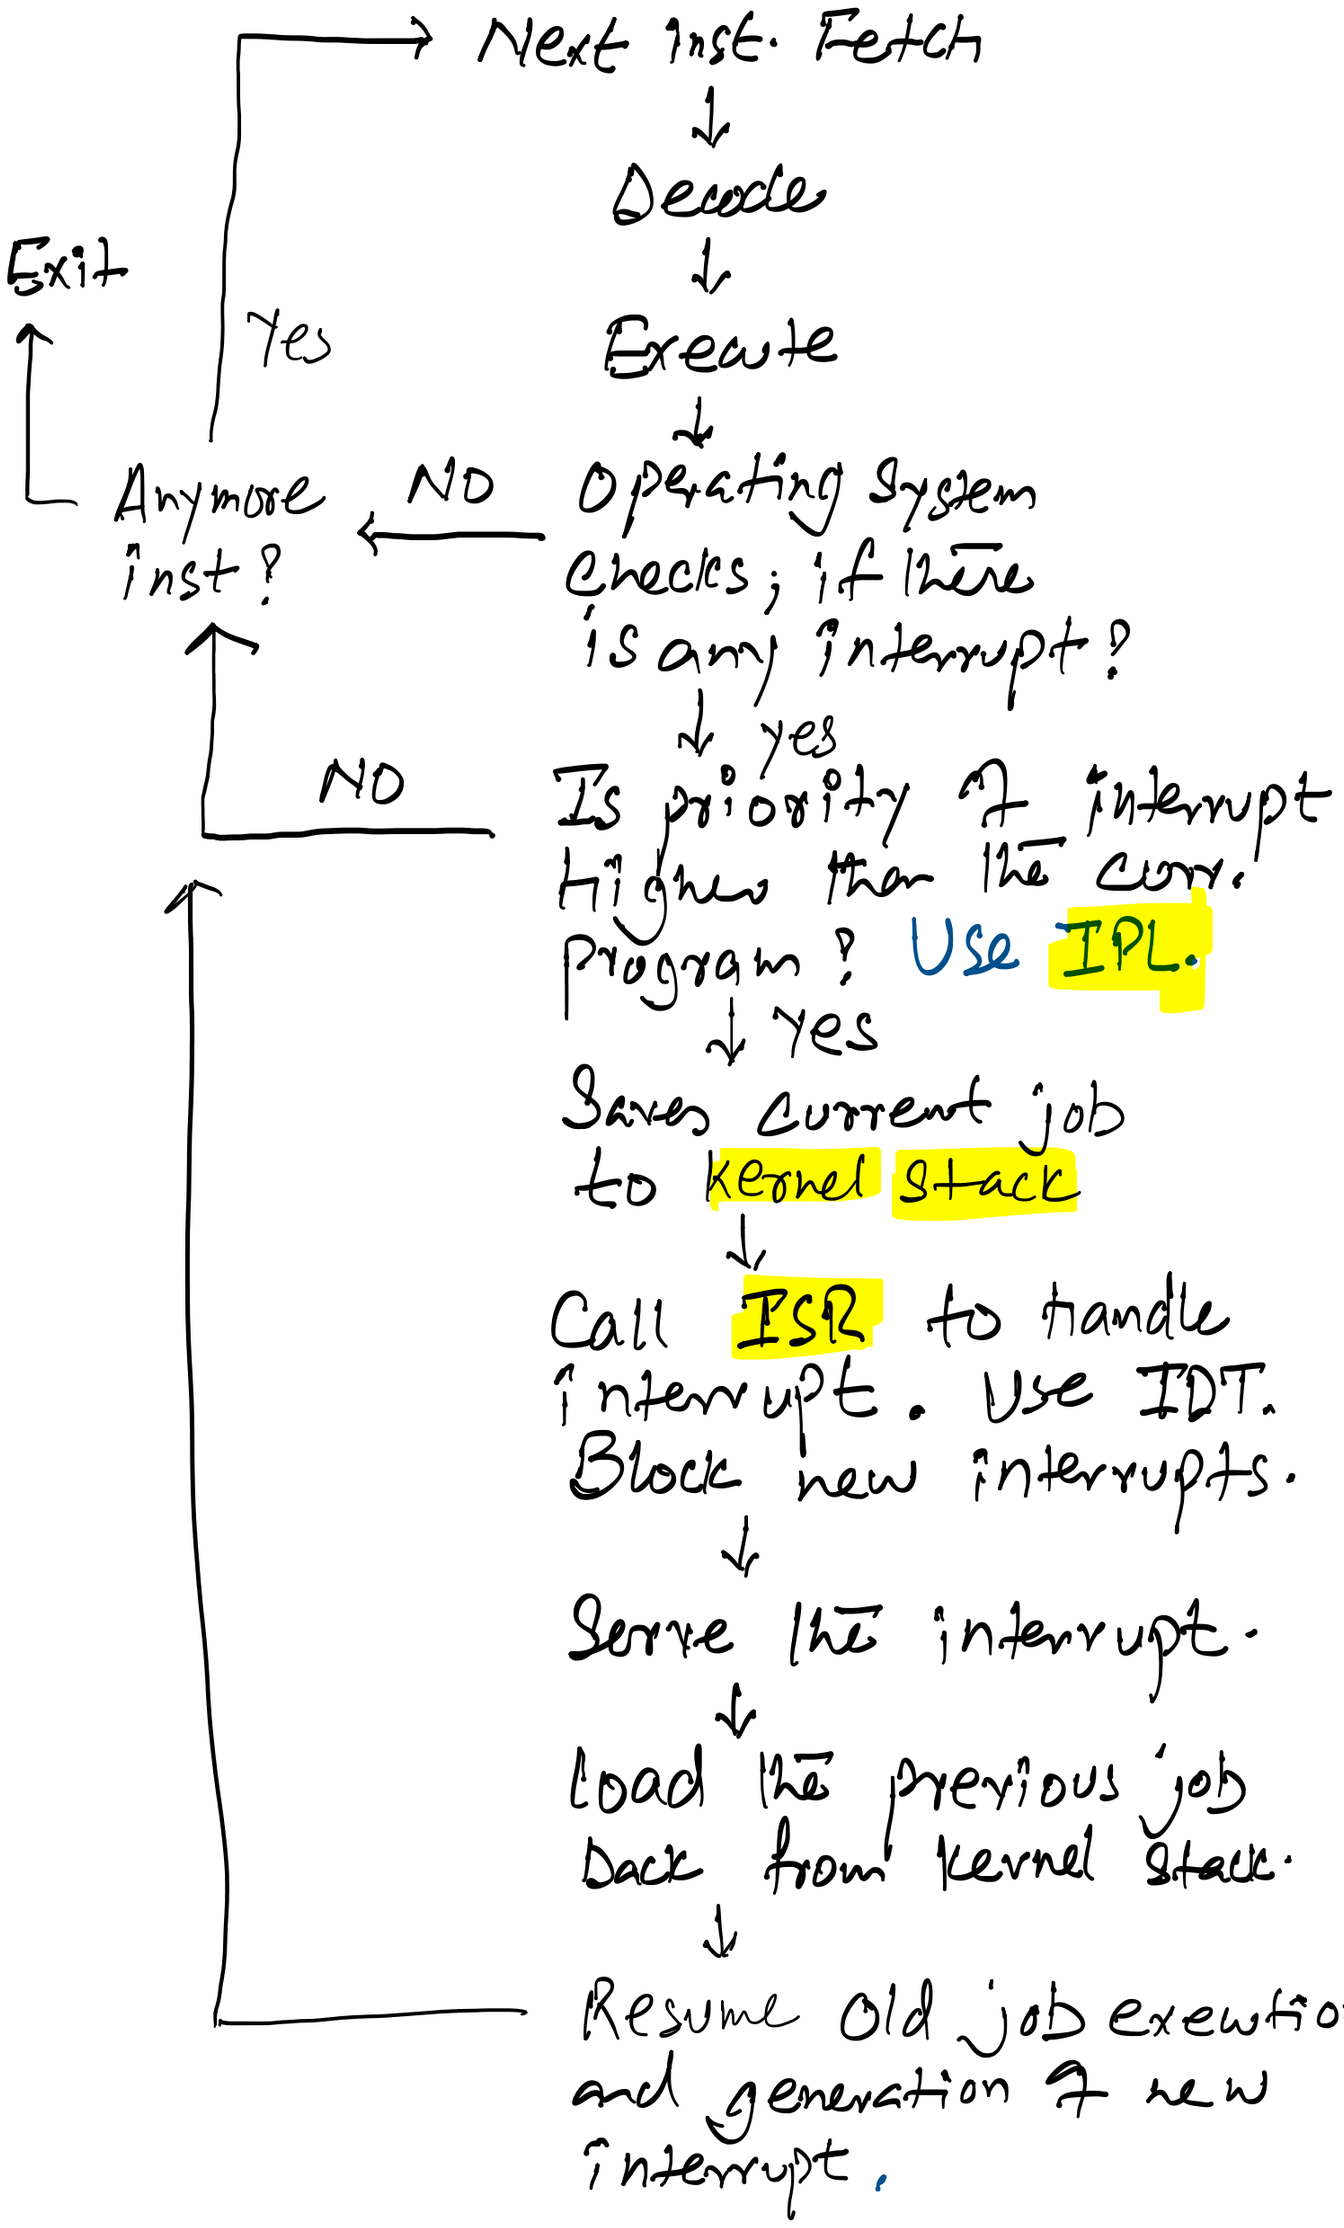
Interrupts

Saturday, 4 December 2021 1:15 PM



Interrupts:
A digital signal generated by either software or hardware to seek micro-processor's attention.

Interrupt Priority List (IPL):
An interrupt priority list used to check the interrupt weightage. It defines all programs and their list.

Interrupt Dispatch Table (IDT): A table that shows the interrupt related details like attached programs etc.

Interrupt Service Routine (ISR):
An operating system exewtive that determines interrupt's associations, load related programs.

Operating System Kernel Stack:
Stack in computer's memory to hold-on to interrupted jobs.