

KEY TERMS .

Protocol: A set of rules governing the communications b/w two or more devices over a network. Also referred to as "preset rules".

HTTP: Hypertext Transfer Protocol.

Packet: It's a part of the whole needs to be sent or received over a network. It's a msg/split of data into smaller groups for transmission in the form of bits.

Segment: Segment is also a piece of divide data in part and mostly used term while discussing TCP/IP transport layer.

FTP: File Transfer Protocol.

SMTP: Simple Mail Transfer Protocol.

MIME: Multi-Purpose Internet Mail Extension.

POP: Post Office Protocol.

IMAP: Internet Message Access Protocol.

Host: A device or computer that can communicate over the network with others.

Host-to-Host: It's a protocol, which is used by TCP when communicating b/w two devices.

} Email Client
lik
MS Outlook.